Prof. Ignatz Goldziher,

My Dear Sir: I just received your postal-card and can not express to you how greatly I am grieved and disappointed that you decline to cooperate in the valuable and scholarly Memorial book which under the title: "Oriental & Theological Studies in Honor of Alexander Kohut" I am editing. It is all the more painful to me because strange to say the Hungarian scholars did not respond to my invitation. Surely it speaks very badly for them. My lamented father loved his country and his compatriots and such treatment is very suspicious. I beg of you again to reconsider my plea. Can you not send me before June 1st 1895 - an essay no matter how small an Arabic literature work please.
You will not refuse

hman, Schrader, Weil
